Had Things Moving Nicely Until Orth
Went to Pieces in Sixth
Inning.

ST. LOUIS, June 7.—St. Louis, 5; Washington, 3.

At Orth repeated yesterday the performance of Jacobson the day previous by shutting St. Louis out for five innings and then going up in the air. In the sixth inning the Browns found him for two runs, and in the seventh they added three more, enough to win.

It looked as though St. Louis would score in the first inning, but a fast double play by McCormick, Cassidy and Clarke killed the chance. The Senators got their first run in the second off a base on balls to McCormick, Jones' error, Stahl's sacrifice, and Clarke's single. Their other two were gathered in the sixth. McCormick again walked and Stahl again sacrificed him up a bag. Petty hit Drill. Orth's grounder got through Padden and McCormick scored. Coughlin patted one through the infield and Drill tallied. Patsy Donovan ballooned to Padden and the Washingtons' scoring was at an end.

Georgetown Law defeated Georgetown Dental at Georgetown Field yesterday afternoon in the first game of the interclass series of commencement week, 12 to 7. Superior fielding by the lawyers accounts for their victory.

The weather was uncomfortably warm, and both teams were willing to quit after the second inning. In the sixth inning both teams agreed to stop to give the Arts and Medical nine time to play their game.

This game resulted in a better contest than the first, the Arts winning, 10 to 7. To Fitzpatrick, the pitcher, and Connors, is due much of the credit for the victory. Fitzpatrick pitched in fine form. Connors added by smothering a home run over the bank in the second inning, and hit a long fly to center in the seventh which was muffed and scored a pair of runs.

The Law and Arts teams will play this afternoon at 4.

Phenomenal Streak
Of the Boy PlungerJoe Yaeger Made Killing Yesterday on Mimosa Because of Starter's Experiment.
Has Made Million in Four Years.

NEW YORK, June 7.—"Joe" Yaeger's luck is the byword of the racecourse. At Gravesend Yaeger has been making the heavy plays that earned him the title of "plunger." The goings of the track say that Yaeger did not win a cent less than $50,000 yesterday.

This modest amount was won on two races. He backed his own filly, Mimosa, in the first race from 5 to 1 down to 2 to 1, and she won. He placed most of his winnings back at a good price on W. B. Jennings' four-year-old filly, Dainty, which was ridden by the clever young jockey Hildebrand. This rider is under contract to Yaeger.

No one, of course, can say the exact amount won by Yaeger. But when a plunger appears in front of nearly every bookmaker in the betting ring and asks "How much will you take?" it is pretty safe to assume that he is not confining himself to the loose change in his bank roll.

Yaeger's Wonderful Luck.

That Yaeger is reveling in an extraordinary streak of luck is illustrated by a combination of circumstances which attached to the first race, and which was all in his favor. It is a question whether Yaeger intended betting heavily on Mimosa. It is a fact that he did not accept the opening price of 5 to 1. His commissions, however, quickly brought him out all the crowd candidates in unusually large numbers, but the juniors, especially, have taken advantage of the opportunities offered by favorable skies. As a result, their work is now faster, snappier, and more scientific than it has been at any time this season, and the boys promise to give a good account of themselves in any events they may enter.

Beat Mixed Crew.

On Sunday the juniors defeated the mixed crew in a mile race amid great excitement. The mixed crew got a length the better of the start, but when the race ended the juniors were three quarters of a length to the good. Among the single scullers who have been out recently are Britt, McGowan, Herman, Daly, Redington, and Hecox, all of whom are working hard and appear to be in good shape. The senior eight settles down to regular practice next Thursday.

The starter, Christopher Fitzgerald, was the man said to be responsible for the starter's experiment.

TODAY'S GAMES.

Wilson vs. Garley, White House ellipse.

Fourth vs. St. Stephen's, Fourteenth Street and Lydecker Avenue.

In a one-sided contest on the Mount Pleasant grounds yesterday, the Guntons won from Mount Pleasant Congregational by timely hitting and better fielding, by 9 to 2.

From the first it was Gunton's game, and they started out with their championship clothes on yesterday for the first time this season. They have played fair ball, but until yesterday have been pitted against the weaker teams. The score:

Passed balls—Beckett, Russell, Umpire—Neumann. Time of game—1 hour and 40 minutes.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Two new first basemen, well known in local baseball circles, made their first appearance in the league yesterday, "Tubby" Ballinger for the "Champs," and "Lefty" Herring for the Congregational boys. Each put up a good game, and will add greatly to the material of the teams.

The manager of the losing team yesterday insists on putting Irving Rea in the outfield, when his diamond is weak, a great mistake. Irving has been censured because he made a few errors in the first part of the season. Ball players who do not go after the balls never make the errors. Rea always tries for the balls, and covers more ground in the infield than a majority of the infielders in the league.

Bruce Bielaski made his berth with the Guntons a safe thing yesterday, when he placed a clean hit among the trees for four sacks.

The losers woke up in the ninth and got their bases full on three well placed singles, but Seay thought it best not to let but one score cross the plate.

LAW SCHOOL PLAYS
COLLEGIANS TODAYChampionship Game of Georgetown Series.

THE TRACK MEET TOMORROW

Many Events on Program—Dumbarton
Club Will Also Meet Blue and Gray Reserves.

The Georgetown senior class baseball championship will be decided this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at Georgetown Field, when the graduating class of the law school plays the graduating class of the college. In yesterday's preliminary games the lawyers defeated the dentists while the collegians won from the medics. Today, Cox will be called upon to go on the slab for the law school, and defend the fair name of his class, while Miller will probably do the laborious stunt for the school of arts. As the game is to be played in connection with the commencement week exercises, no admission will be charged.

Field Day Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a field and track meet, in which only students of the University will be allowed to compete. It was originally intended to have Arthur Duffy, '04, world's champion sprinter, run an exhibition 100-yards, but the injury which the flyer received at the recent intercollegiate championship meet at Franklin Field has put him completely out of commission. A feature of the meet will be a mile relay race, between the four senior classes. The events will be the 100, 220, and 440-yard dashes, half mile run, hurdle races, running high jump, pole vault, running broad jump, shot put, and hammer throw.

The Dumbarton Club and the Georgetown Reserve nines will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, at Georgetown Field. These two teams are among the strongest in the amateur ranks of the District, so a good game should result. They have met but once before this season, and then Dumbarton won on a some run in the ninth inning. The proceeds of the game will be for University Hospital. Carter, of the clubmen, will probably oppose Weems on the rubber.

BATTING RALLY

SAVED FOUNDRY

Seemed to Be Loser Until Symoniskie
Weakened in Seventh, When Everybody Hit.

Wesley Chapel seemed to have Foundry beaten up to the seventh inning in the game played on the White Lot ellipse yesterday, with a score of 2 to 0, but Symoniskie weakened in the last three innings and Foundry pounded out a victory.

In the seventh session timely hitting gave Foundry four tallies. To these they added one in the eighth and three in the ninth. The score:

Foundry.....	0	0	0	0	4	13	4
Wesley.....	2	0	0	0	0	0	2

Batteries—Barber and Randall; Symoniskie and Crampton.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Randall's wing was working overtime yesterday, and not a Wesley man stole a base.

Austin Harvey cutler played a good game for the winners. He got two hits and cleanly accepted the five chances that came his way at second base.

Crampton was a little off. He had two passed balls and a pair of errors.

Captain Kinney, of Foundry, threw a man out on a right field yesterday, and made a three-bagger and single. "Dutch" was in the game at all stages.

Excellent fielding by Wesley in the first six innings helped Symoniskie to goose-egg Foundry for that period.

While running bases Catching interfered with a fielder and Umpire Betts properly called him out.

In Betts the Church League has by far the best umpire in the city, and one who is as good as several of those officiating in the American and National League. He has umpired in both.

Barber struck out eleven Wesley men.
